INTRODUCTION

Thank you for downloading DraftTracker 2011. We think you'll find that DraftTracker is the best FREE fantasy baseball draft software available today. This year we have added new features that will enhance the overall DraftTracker experience and help give you the edge on draft day.

WHAT IS DRAFTTRACKER?

DraftTracker 2011 is a Microsoft Excel based application that gives you all of the data you need to make wise drafting decisions in your fantasy baseball league. Not only does DraftTracker provide you with the latest composite projections, but it also includes updated MDP Rankings, Tiers, and historical performance – all easily sortable and filterable.

But that's not all. DraftTracker goes even further by allowing you to track your entire league's draft and compare how your team is doing against the rest of the league. With the League Stats sheet, you can quickly see how your stats rank with the rest of the league and then tailor your picks to make up deficiencies your team may have.

This document explains how to setup, configure, and start using DraftTracker 2011.

It is important that you read the entire document before using DraftTracker, so that you fully understand all of the capabilities.

(As of this writing, DraftTracker 2011 is still in Beta release and some features/functionality may be limited.)

SYSTEM REQUIREMENTS

In order to run DraftTracker 2011 successfully you need:

PC running Microsoft Windows 2000/XP/Vista/7 with Excel 2003/2007/2010

or

Mac with Excel 2011 (Excel 2004 and 2008 will NOT work)

Macros MUST be ENABLED and Macro Security set to Medium or lower.

DUE TO HEAVY USE OF VBA MACROS, DRAFTTRACKER WILL NOT WORK IN OPENOFFICE.

If you do not currently have Microsoft Office, you may download a free 30 day trial from www.microsoft.com

LEAGUE SETUP TAB

When you open DraftTracker 2011 you will see the League Setup screen. This is where you will configure all of the settings for your league prior to using the draft functionality.

The screenshot shows the DraftTracker 2011 interface with several key sections:

- LEAGUE SETUP:
 - Enter number of teams (max 20): 12
 - Enter number of rounds (max 30): 25
- TEAM SETUP: A table with 20 rows for team numbers and names (TEAM 1 to TEAM 20).
- POSITION TRACKER SETTINGS:

1B	1
2B	1
3B	1
SS	1
CI	1
MI	1
OF	5
UTIL	1
SP	4
RP	2
P	2
- STATS:

SV	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
K	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
WHIP	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
- TRADE DRAFT PICKS:
 - TEAM: All Teams
 - ROUND: 0

Callouts include: "You can replace the default Team names with the actual names for your league.", "Click Generate Draft Sheet when all of the settings are complete.", "Change the number of required slots for each position to match your league.", "Select which stats you want to display on the League Stats sheet", and "Use this section if your league allows teams to trade draft picks prior to the draft."

LEAGUE SETUP

Under League Setup, enter the number of teams and rounds your league is configured for. We currently allow up to 20 teams and 30 rounds. (We currently do not offer support for Auction leagues.)

TEAM SETUP

For each team in your league, you may edit the team names to match the actual teams in your league. When you change the team names on this screen, they will also change on all other screens that use team information.

POSITION TRACKER SETTINGS

DraftTracker has intelligent position tracking functionality. As you draft, DraftTracker keeps track of the positions of the players you draft and displays the current counts on the Roster Stats sheet.

DraftTracker is smart enough to recognize players with multiple eligibility and will slot such a player into the first available position for that player.

(Example: Howie Kendrick qualifies at 1B and 2B. If Team 1 already has a 1B, but not a 2B, Kendrick would be drafted as a 2B. If Team 1 has a 1B and a 2B, then Kendrick would be drafted as a CI.)

You may change the number of required positions to match your league's settings. If the total number of required players is less than the number of rounds you configure, then all of the remaining players will be drafted as Bench players.

STATS

Check the box under the Display column for all of the stats you want to display on the League Stats page. The stats you decide to display will be used to calculate your league's projected roto points.

TRADE DRAFT PICKS (NEW IN 2011)

If your league allows teams to swap draft picks prior to the draft, you can use this feature to perform those trades. In 2011, DraftTracker uses 1-click drafting and calculates the entire draft order when you click the Generate Draft Sheet button.

Use Trade Draft Picks ONLY AFTER you have clicked the Generate Draft Sheet button. The draft order must be setup completely before you can trade picks.

To use Trade Draft Picks, select the first team from the drop down menu and replace the 0 with the round number that that team is trading. Then select the team below that will receive the pick from the first team and replace the 0 with the round that the second team will be giving back to the first team.

Click the Process Trade button when finished. If successful, you should see a pop up box that confirms the trade.

GENERATE DRAFT SHEET

Once you have configured all of the league settings to your liking, click Generate Draft Sheet. Depending on your computer, this process could take up to 60 seconds. Please be patient. You should see red status messages underneath the Generate Draft Sheet button detailing what steps are being executed. Please wait for the entire process to complete before going on to using the rest of the tool.

DRAFT LIST (NEW IN 2011)

The Draft List, a new feature in 2011, shows the running progress of the draft. This sheet is dynamically setup based on the settings you select on the League Setup sheet.

PICK

The pick number within the round

OVERALL

The overall pick number

TEAM NAME

The name of the team drafting

PLAYER

The name of the player drafted.

You may notice that when you click into the cell in the Player column that a drop down box appears. This is solely for the purpose of changing a PREVIOUSLY drafted player in the event a mistake was discovered. You SHOULD NOT use this to draft undrafted picks as it will throw the draft count off and cause problems with the 1-click drafting .

DRAFT BOARD

The Draft Board shows a round by round grid detailing the draft results. This has the same general look and feel as previous versions of DraftTracker, HOWEVER, draft picks are no longer entered directly on this page.

The Draft Board is now VIEW ONLY.

LEAGUE STATS

The League Stats page shows you how all teams in the league compare – both in terms of raw projected stats and projected roto points. A graph also visually depicts this data.

STATS

The raw projected stats for all players drafted

(Note: ERA and WHIP values of 999.99 appear when no pitchers are drafted. Since lower ERA and WHIP values are better, we had to make the default a very high number to preserve the ranking system.)

ROTO

The projected roto points for each category. The top third appear in green, middle third in yellow, and bottom third in red. Even if you play in a head to head league, this section is very valuable since it will allow you to quickly see which stats your team is lacking in.

ROSTER STATS

The Roster Stats page lets you keep track of individual team draft picks and projected statistics. It also contains the Position Tracker for each team.

ROSTER STATS

The screenshot displays the Roster Stats interface. At the top, there is a 'SELECT TEAM' dropdown menu currently set to 'TEAM 1'. Below this is a table of drafted players with columns for PLAYER, POS, AVG, R, HR, RBI, SB, OBP, ERA, W, S, and K. The first player listed is ALBERT PUJOLS, a 1B with an AVG of 0.311, 119 R, 42 HR, 122 RBI, 12 SB, and 0.416 ERA. To the right of the player list is the 'POSITION TRACKER' table, which shows the number of players required and needed for each position. The positions listed are C, 1B, 2B, 3B, SS, CI, MI, OF, UTIL, SP, RP, and P. The 'REQUIRED' column shows the number of slots for each position, and the 'NEED' column shows the number of slots currently filled. A legend indicates that green cells represent 'Open' slots and red cells represent 'Filled' slots. A 'BENCH PLAYERS' row shows 4 players. At the bottom, there is a navigation bar with tabs for LEAGUE SETUP, DRAFT LIST, DRAFT BOARD, LEAGUE STATS, ROSTER STATS (selected), MDP RANK, MDP TIERS, HITTERS, PITCHERS, and QUEUE.

	TOTAL	21	20
	BENCH PLAYERS	4

SELECT TEAM

Select the team you wish to view from the drop down box.

POSITION TRACKER

As you draft, the Position Tracker will keep track of the positions drafted. Once all required slots for a position are filled, the position will turn solid red to indicate that the position has been filled. If any additional players are drafted to that position and cannot be filled elsewhere, the player will count toward the Bench Players.

If a player has multiple eligibility, Position Tracker will slot the player in the first available slot in the following order: C, 1B, 2B, 3B, SS, OF, CI, MI, UTIL, SP, RP, P, Bench.

DRAFTING PLAYERS – MDP RANK PAGE

The MDP Rank page is the first page which allows you to draft players. In 2011, all drafting is done via either the MDP Rank, MDP Tiers, Hitters, Pitchers, or Queue pages.

DRAFT INFO

The Draft Info header displays information about the current state of the draft.

To draft a player to the team listed under NOW DRAFTING, simply click the cell of the desired player name and click the DRAFT SELECTED PLAYER button. The selected player will appear on the Draft List and Draft Board, and the Draft Info section will update to move on to the next team.

If you make a mistake and draft the wrong player, simply click the Undo Last Pick button to reverse the last pick. This can be done multiple times all the way back to the very first pick.

MDP

MDP stands for Median Draft Position. This sheet provides the latest MDP data.

COMPOSITE PROJECTIONS

We have also included the current composite projections on this sheet so you get a lot of valuable information in one quick view.

MDP TIERS

In addition to the MDP Rankings, we also provide MDP Tiers which gives you a quick way to see the different levels players fall under.

This is useful when you are trying to quickly find the best player available at a certain position. The ranking numbers tie back to the values on the MDP Rank page.

Players can be drafted from this list just as they can from the MDP Rank page.

HITTERS & PITCHERS

The Hitters and Pitchers pages give you the most raw stats. These pages are more useful for pre-draft research. Here you can compare a player's 2011 projections against his 2010 and 3-year average stats.

Players can also be drafted the same way as on the MDP Ranking and MDP Tiers pages.

LIST

Use the List dropdown to select all of the lists you wish to display at once. You can choose from:

- 2011 Projections (Composite)
- 2010 (2010 Stats)
- 3 Year Avg (3 Year average stats)

QUEUE (NEW FOR 2011)

New in 2011 is the Queue page. This page allows you to create your own rankings or preferred draft order.

DRAFT INFO >	TEAM 1	ROUND	PICK	OVERALL	DRAFT SELECTED PLAYER	UNDO LAST PICK
	TEAM 1	1	1	1
+	1	Albert Pujols
	2	David Wright

	17

To get players into the queue, you must add them by doing the following on any page with player data:

- Right click on a player name
- Select Add To Queue

Once players are in the Queue, use the up and down arrows to move a player up and down in the queue.

PLAYER INJURY UPDATES (NEW IN 2011)

The 2011 includes updated player injury reports from USA Today. To check if there is an update for a player do the following on any page that contains player data:

- Right click on the player name
- Select Check Player Status

The screenshot shows an Excel spreadsheet titled 'MDP RANKINGS'. The spreadsheet has columns for 'Player', 'Now Drafting', and 'Round'. A list of players is shown, including Albert Pujols, Hanley Ramirez, Miguel Cabrera, Troy Tulowitzki, Joey Votto, Evan Longoria, Carlos Gonzalez, Robinson Cano, Josh Hamilton, Ryan Braun, David Wright, Carl Crawford, Adrian Gonzalez, Alex Rodriguez, Roy Halladay, Mark Teixeira, Chase Utley, Tim Lincecum, Matt Holliday, Ryan Howard, Joe Mauer, and Prince Fielder. A right-click context menu is open over the player 'Adrian Gonzalez', with the 'Check Player Status' option highlighted.

If a player has an update, a pop up box will appear like this:

If there is no update, you will see this:

SUPPORT

DraftTracker is built by members of the Fantasy Baseball Café in their spare time. While we strive to release the best possible application, users may experience issues that did not come up during testing – especially in the Beta release.

We encourage users to provide feedback to help us improve the product.

There are many ways to do this.

1. The DraftTracker Message Board at <http://drafttracker.weebly.com>
2. The DraftTracker Facebook page: <http://www.facebook.com/pages/Fantasy-Baseball-DraftTracker-2011/307937736031>
